Hospital Medicine & Critical Care Opportunities

Practice With Passion.

Reignite your passion and rethink how you can experience practicing medicine. Our model is unique—no private equity or big boardrooms where investors care about profits instead of people. Here, everyone plays a part. We are a partnership of physicians, residents, advanced providers, and administrative teams working to improve the lives of our patients, providers and communities. Together, we work for something bigger, better, and more rewarding.

- Flexibility to practice the way you want
- Autonomy to make the best decisions for your patients
- Resources like payor contracting, billing, CME, admin support and more

Industry-Leading Compensation and Benefits

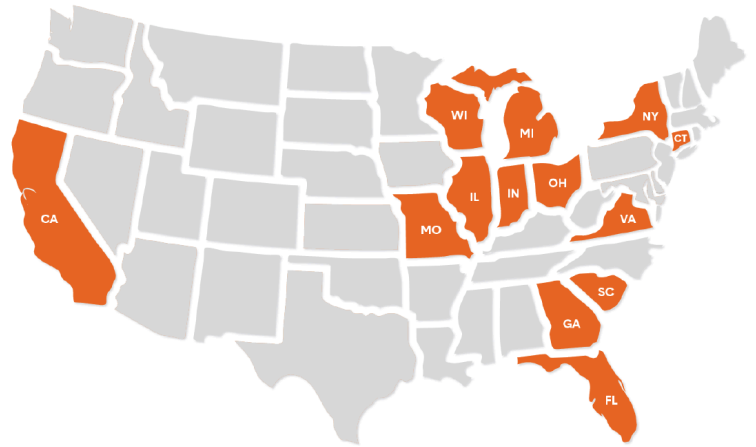

We are looking for collaborative, career-minded hospitalists who want a voice in how they practice medicine.

Vituity currently has opportunities for hospitalists and intensivists at hospitals and skilled nursing practices across the country, some with sign-on bonuses up to $150,000!

YES, You Can Own Your Own Concierge Internal Medicine Practice

AND Enjoy Your Life!

I am looking to mentor 2 internal medicine physicians, to work with me in my office, helping them create and sustain their own independent concierge IM practice. I can set you up for success!

Medical Whisperer Concierge Internal Medicine Primary Care is my independent concierge practice started in August of 2018 and running successfully since then. I have been practicing in Albuquerque, NM either as a primary care or a hospitalist since 1994.

Best Fit Physician Profile

Internists with an entrepreneurial spirit, who genuinely care about the care they provide, and a desire to practice medicine that works great not only for the patients but yourself as well.

A practice such as this allows a physician great control of your working schedule, how busy you choose to be and the patients with whom you work.

Medical Director

Cincinnati, OH, USA

Why Work at AbsoluteCare?

At AbsoluteCare, we serve the most vulnerable individuals in America. These are our neighbors, people who are at higher risk for disease or who have multiple, complex, chronic illnesses. Often, they deal with an unequal healthcare system and wind up seeking basic care from emergency rooms. We take these patients out of those spaces and turn them into members: people who are entitled to some of the best, most focused care this country has to offer.

We call this “care beyond medicine.” We have turned the doctor’s office into a comprehensive care center. Here, we surround our members with a core care team of doctors, nurses, social workers, and medical assistants who have the time and skills to get to know our members’ needs. We make the most important services available to our members under one roof. This includes a pharmacy, X-rays, a blood lab, nutrition services, urgent care, and much more.

We don’t stop at our four walls. We engage members in the communities where we all live to find the people who need us most. Through these community care teams, we remove the barriers to healthcare that so many people face daily. And it works.

Our unique care is guided by our core values of accountability, caring, trust, and teamwork. We call it ACT2.

We are excited to announce the opening of a New Care Center in Cincinnati in July 2025, and I would love to connect with you or anyone you know who might be interested in learning more about our mission.

AbsoluteCare is seeking a dynamic physician leader to put the principles of population health into action for our medically complex & socially vulnerable members. Oftentimes, due to the effects of trauma and poverty, a significant portion of our population suffer from infectious diseases – including HIV, Hepatitis C, and complex wound infections. Through our integrated care teams, including physicians, advanced practice practitioners, nurse care managers, social workers, behavioral health therapists, peer counselors, dietitians, pharmacists, and community outreach workers, we transform the lives of our members.

Working within our matrix organization, the Medical Director will collaborate closely with the National Directors of their respective disciplines to implement process improvements, enhance our standards of care, and surpass discipline specific professional practice guidelines in our ambulatory intensive caring unit care model. As a dyad partner with the Practice Administrator, the Medical Director will be responsible for all the medical center outcomes including utilization, quality outcomes and the overall operation of the medical center and providers. This role is instrumental to our fast-growing organization’s success, and requires a person who exhibits dynamism, humility, clinical acumen, the ability to work collaboratively, and strong leadership skills.

- Associate Medical Directors
- Lead Physicians
- Primary Care Physicians

Winship Cancer Institute at Emory University Academic Hospitalist for Inpatient Medical Oncology Service

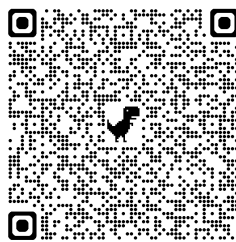

We are actively seeking qualified Internal Medicine physicians to serve as academic hospitalists for the Inpatient Medical Oncology service at Winship Cancer Institute at Emory University Hospital Midtown and/or Emory University Hospital. A full-time hospitalist will provide 24 weeks of inpatient service per year, providing direct patient care (including admissions) as well as supervising and teaching advanced practice providers and trainees (fellows and residents). Part-time positions are available for highly qualified candidates.

Qualified candidates will have expertise in inpatient management of acute illnesses and complications/exacerbations of chronic illnesses, preferably with prior experience as an academic hospitalist. Ideal candidates will have additional training/experience in Palliative Medicine or Medical Oncology. Candidates without these preferred qualifications should have a passion for developing the additional competencies required to provide excellent care to patients with cancer through on-the-job training and learning opportunities.

Hospitalists will support clinical trials where applicable in the inpatient setting, while collaborating with other clinicians in the Department of Hematology and Medical Oncology, Winship Cancer Institute, and others across Emory University. Ample opportunities for teaching and additional research, including but not limited to outcomes research and quality initiatives, will be provided for interested hospitalists. Academic rank of Assistant Professor or higher will be commensurate with experience, as set forth in the promotion guidelines of Emory University School of Medicine.

Highlights:

- Competitive salary and benefits
- 2 weeks paid vacation (full-time hospitalists will work 24 weeks/year)
- Collegial environment with seamless transitions from inpatient care to outpatient follow-up
- Strong faculty development/mentorship programs to support academic success and promotion
- Ample opportunities for teaching and research
- Opportunities for on-the-job learning in Medical Oncology and Palliative Medicine
- Public Service Loan Forgiveness eligibility (Emory is a non-profit healthcare organization)

Located in Greensboro, NC, Guilford Medical Associates (GMA) is an independent, physician-owned private practice with over 50 years of dedication to high-value, patient-centered care.

Why Choose GMA?

1. Independent, Physician-Owned Model

- Physicians maintain autonomy with flexible 4-day work week and personalized schedules.

2. Focus on High-Value Patient Centered Care

- Comprehensive, coordinated, and cost-effective care tailored to individual patient needs. Quality of care prioritized over high volume of care allowing ample time with patients.

3. Team-Based Approach

- 11 physicians, 6 Nurse Practitioners, and a PharmD/Certified Diabetes Educator support physicians and enhance collaborative care.

4. Partnership with Triad HealthCare Network (THN)

- Affiliation with Cone Health/Risant Health ACO to promote better outcomes and reduce costs. Allows GMA to participate in value-based incentive models with limited risk.

5. Supportive Work Environment

- Family-oriented culture promoting work-life balance and exceptional patient care.

Exciting Career Opportunities

We are seeking 1-2 physicians to join our growing practice. Benefits include:

Piedmont Primary Care

Who We Are

Piedmont is empowering Georgians by changing health care. We continue to fuel Georgia's growth through safe, high-quality care close to home through an integrated health care system that provides a hassle-free, unified experience. We are a private, not-for-profit organization with more than 12,000 donors annually that for centuries has sought to make a positive difference in every life we touch in the communities we serve.

Across our 1,755 physical locations we care for more than 4 million patients and serve communities that comprise 85 percent of Georgia's population. Our patients conveniently engage with Piedmont online, as they scheduled more than 612,000 online appointments and over 163,000 virtual visits. With more than 47,000 care givers we are the largest Georgia-based private employer of Georgians, who all came for the job, but stayed for the people.

In 2024 and 2023, Piedmont has earned recognition from Newsweek as one of America's Greatest Workplaces for Diversity and also as one of America's Greatest Workplaces for Women. In 2022, Forbes ranked Piedmont on its list of the Best Large Employers in the United States. In addition, Piedmont provided nearly $390 million in community benefit programming and uncompensated care in Fiscal Year 2023.

Closer Care. Better by Far.

Tenure-track Associate or Full Professor, Division of General Internal Medicine, Center for Health System Improvement, and Tennessee Population Health Consortium

This opportunity is ideal for anyone who wants to work as an academic general internal medicine physician and help lead statewide efforts to improve the health of people in vulnerable communities across Tennessee (TN). The clinician-investigator will receive the support and mentorship needed to enable our TN Population Health Consortium to continue to get and execute on large research grants from foundations and federal agencies, including NIH, AHRQ, CMS, HRSA, and PCORI. Apply now!

Job Summary:

We are seeking an experienced clinician-investigator with a passion for patient-centered outcomes, quality improvement (QI), and population health research to join a growing and dynamic team of faculty in the Division of General Internal Medicine, Center for Health System Improvement, and Tennessee Population Health Consortium, with opportunity to have a secondary appointment in the Department of Preventive Medicine. We are seeking a faculty member to focus primarily on conducting pragmatic clinical and population health research. The Center serves as the research core of the Tennessee Population Health Consortium, a statewide primary care extension service dedicated to strengthening primary and preventive care and improving the health of Tennesseans. The candidate will work in collaboration with major health systems and community health centers across Tennessee to improve care for vulnerable populations.

The clinician-investigator will care for patients, conduct pragmatic clinical and health services research, and train and supervise residents, fellows, and health policy and outcomes research MS and PhD students. Clinical responsibilities will be based at Regional One Health (ROH) through UT Regional One Physicians and will include oversight of medical students and residents in the ROH Outpatient Center Internal Medicine Clinic. The candidate will particularly help support QI activities at ROH and its efforts to extend essential primary and preventive care into the community. Candidates should have a strong interest in one or more of these areas: patient-centered outcomes research; population health; QI; comparative effectiveness; health care delivery; health information technology; disparities; and improving care for patients with obesity, diabetes, or other chronic diseases.

Position Qualifications:

Successful candidates will hold an M.D. with an additional M.P.H., Ph.D., or equivalent degree; demonstrated scientific accomplishment; board certification/board eligibility in internal medicine; excellent oral and written communication skills; and ability to acquire sustained, external, investigator-initiated research funding. Preference will be given to applicants who have conducted scholarly work in health services or pragmatic clinical research with practical implications for clinical practice and population health. We are looking for faculty members who can lead multidisciplinary research teams, develop and test interventions to improve health systems serving vulnerable populations, and who have contributed to successful primary care and/or population health research programs.
