Turn Game Questions Into Quality Booth Interactions.

The Doctor's Challenge promotes one-on-one interaction with participating physicians and drives attendees to your booth.

You supply the question.

Participating attendees will come to your booth for the answer. Use the question as a conversation starter to increase awareness of your brands, products, and services.

Generate more leads.

The 10-question maximum challenge quiz will be promoted to attendees before and during the meeting. Your company name and booth number will appear next to the question you provide. By participating, you will also receive special recognition in ACP promotional materials.

ACP supplies the prizes.
