Useful Information for Before, During, and After the Meeting

Before the Meeting

- Review the meeting program and register for ticketed sessions; onsite availability for certain sessions will be limited.
- Register for available Pre-Courses: annualmeeting.acponline.org/educational-program/pre-session-courses.
- Download the ACP Meetings app for the 2020 Internal Medicine Meeting. You'll see a full listing of sessions, events, handouts, and exhibitor information.
- Need a visa letter?
Contact internationaloffice@acponline.org.

While at the Meeting

- Visit the Global Engagement Suite, located in the Convention Center Room 309—staff will be available for international attendees with questions or who want to connect. Suite hours will be posted in February.
- Stop by the ACP Resource Center, located in the Exhibit Hall, to learn more about the benefits of membership and other ACP resources, as well as eligibility for ACP Fellowship.
- Visit the Clinical Skills Center to participate in educational activities that provide hands-on learning and interactive self-study. You must register for these activities in advance; there will be no onsite registration. Registration is free to attendees but limited. More information can be found here: annualmeeting.acponline.org/educational-program/clinical-skills-center.

After the Meeting

- Complete the online form to obtain CME at annualmeeting.acponline.org/educational-program/earn-cme-credit.
- Electronic certificates of attendance will be available. Following the meeting, you will receive an email outlining the additional steps needed to obtain your certificate. Certificate inquiries: internationaloffice@acponline.org.

Useful Information for Travel to the United States

Telephones

All U.S. phone numbers have 10 digits. To call the United States from abroad, you need to dial the international code 00 + the U.S. country code 1 (or +1). To call abroad from the United States, dial 00, followed by the country code, the city code (if applicable), and the number.

Internet

In many hotels and public spaces, such as airports, restaurants, service stations, and shopping centers, there are nonsecure “wireless” or “Wi-Fi” zones with wireless Internet access. Free wireless Internet is available in meeting rooms and at the Convention Center.

Currency and Exchange

The official currency of the United States is the U.S. dollar. One dollar is divided into 100 cents. There are four coins: 1 cent (penny), 5 cents (nickel), 10 cents (dime), and 25 cents (quarter). Dollar bills can be distinguished by their different values: 1, 5, 10, 20, 50, and 100 dollars. Currency can be exchanged in banks and exchange bureaus and may be withdrawn from automated teller machines (ATMs).

Tipping

Tipping in the United States is customary and is typically 10% to 20% in taxis, restaurants, and bars.

Transportation

Complimentary shuttle service is provided for all participants to and from the Convention Center and official convention hotels. There is no midday service. Taxi service is available from the Los Angeles International Airport to downtown. Approximate fare to a downtown destination, which includes all meeting-area hotels, is $50.00.
